Employment

May 2022 Photographer - Christening

Photographing a child's christening and children's entertainment party in Aspatria.

May 2022 Photographer - Ladies Night Event

Photographing a Ladies Night event with drag act and other entertainment.

March 2022 Hadfield Trust Award recipient

For the Hadfield Trust award, I have based a project on dance being a universal language and incorporating braille into this. I was awarded a grant from the trust to help with this venture.

2019-2022 Photographer – Headshots/Performance shots

Taking headshots for musical theatre and acting students at the University of Cumbria.

May 2022-Present Date - Retail Assistant – Marks and Spencer

As a trained first aider I am prepared to take on pressure and responsibility for my actions while also balancing other jobs. In my current job as a Retail Assistant, I am constantly problem solving to help customers.

2016-2021 Retail Assistant - Kershaw's Garden Centre

Retail Assistant in a garden centre creating visual merchandised displays, heavy lifting, learning knowledge of products and creating a friendly good experience for the customers. Also taking images of products for use on social media for the business.

Voluntary

2021-Now The Happy Day Dog Training Academy

Voluntary photography work for dog training taking images of the dog training sessions and puppies. Having worked with the Happy Day Dog Training Academy to capture images of their training sessions this has meant I have had to be patient and manage my time.

Working with animals also meant I had to be quick and patient when trying to get image as animals move quickly and do not stay still for long.

2018 Incredible Edible

Making Art work and photographing signs to market the non-profit organisation.

Interests

My interest lie within how art and photography can impact others in different ways, and ways in which we can experience the art world.
